Commissioner Lance Wheeler

Commissioner Carper asked Mrs. McCormick if she would please swear in every person who is touching a ballot today. Commissioner Salango wished to thank the workers for coming out & how they are serving a very important purpose. Commissioner Salango stated just like a jury trial, and this process would not exist without poll workers. Commissioner Salango asked if both parties requesting the hand count were present. Vera McCormick stated they were walking in. Commissioner Wheeler stated what the poll workers are doing is a proud service to the community, and we will stay here until the bitter end. Commissioner Carper stated after Canvass was completed, we locked up all the ballots and the locks will be removed now at 7:04am. Commissioner Carper stated that the Commission looked at the law and the Kanawha County Sheriff Office personally served every candidate. Commissioner Carper stated there was an issue whether one candidate filed their right to preserve on time. Mrs. McCormick stated Kathy Rubio was a few minutes late in filing her petition. Commissioner Carper asked Ms. Rubio if she was in the building, but you were a few minutes late filing, Mr. Sheetz do you object to the Commission accepting her petition. Mr. Sheets stated no, he does not. Commissioner Carper asked if anyone else objected; there were none.

Commissioner Salango moved to allow Kathy Rubio to preserve her rights. Commissioner Wheeler seconded. Motion carried.

Commissioner Carper stated that the law indicates the Board of Canvassers can chose how we start, does anyone object to us starting from the beginning and working the way up. Commissioner Wheeler stated he believes we should do it the way we always do and start at the first precinct. Commissioner Carper asked for the candidates to please identify who is here and their official representative. Robert Sheets, no representative. Cory Zinn, no representative. Kathy Rubio, no representative. Jennifer Pharr, no representative. Shawn Taylor, no representative. Commissioner Carper stated since no candidate has a representative, no one else can speak or ask questions except for the candidates. Commissioner Carper informed the candidates that they have a right to do certain things, but you cannot touch ballots and look to see who voted. You have the right to inspect the hand count. You can get up and walk around the room and peer over the counters' shoulders. Commissioner Carper stated the Commission would appreciate direct questions to Vera McCormick or Marc Slotnick. Marc Slotnick stated that the city Clerk Mr. Miles Cary and Deputy Clerk Nikki Smith is present for the City of Charleston. Cory Zinn stated the code states we can question some ballots. Commissioner Carper stated the code says what it says, and it does give you certain rights. Commissioner Salango stated 248 absentee ballots in the City of Charleston and 50 in ward 8 were democrats. Commissioner Salango stated that the computer marks the ballots correctly, but when people return absentee ballots, they can be marked wrong, for example, a circle not filled in correctly. Commissioner Carper stated the Commission's job is to oversee the general process. Marc Slotnick stated in regards to questioning the counters, the candidate can question a ballot; I prefer you bring it to me first, and then we will look at the ballot. If all four are unanimous, it will be counted if you are not, the ballot will not be counted. Candidates cannot touch a ballot, just the tally sheets. Marc Slotnick informed the candidates that the counters would only be counting the ballots that had been previously counted. Commissioner Carper asked if there were any more questions. There were none. Vera McCormick introduced her assistant Barb; she may be helping at the tables. She is the election supervisor for the County Clerk.
